Speed Networking Evening 24th March 2010

Come and have some fast fun meeting a diverse range of fellow professionals.

The event will enable you to talk to people individually for just three minutes. It's an ideal way to introduce yourself to a surprising number of people without the fear of walking into a room full of strangers or ending a new encounter as you dash.

The evening will be the perfect event to gather contacts from around 20 people in a wide range of property disciplines. There will a delicious Yard buffet break and the chance to get to know some new and older female friends a little better at the bar after.
