What is Women in Property?

The Association of Women in Property ("WiP") is a dynamic forum for the professional development of women in the property and construction industry. It enables members to enhance business opportunities, exchange views, network and gain knowledge. It is a unique organisation in that its members cover all disciplines within the property and construction sectors.

Established in 1987, Women in Property is a national body with 8 regional branches and over 1,000 members.

Membership

If you would like to join WiP's national body and the appropriate branch, please complete this form and forward with a business card to the address below. Payment can be made by an accompanying cheque (made payable to "Women in Property") or by an electronic bill payment; our bank details are available on request at membership@womeninproperty.org.uk

Email: membership@womeninproperty.org.uk

Please note that it is also possible to apply and pay for membership online with a debit/credit card at www.womeninproperty.org.uk/non-members/apply.aspx

Membership is for twelve months from the month of joining; the fee required is £95.00 for South Wales Branch. Renewal notices are sent out a month in advance of renewal date. Membership lapses after two months from date of renewal, if it remains unconfirmed.

- Upon joining/renewing you will be sent a recent newsletter and Lara will advise the relevant branch of your membership.
- Your details will be then entered on the online directory, which is accessible only to members of WiP via a secure password and not available to the public at large via the internet.
- Your details will not be disclosed to third parties nor used for external marketing purposes.
- Please confirm your agreement by ticking the box on page 2 of the form.
- The online directory provides members with the ability to search via disciplines, location and branch and is accessible to members only.
- Change of details can be made on line via the change of details form in the members' section. It is important that your entry is up to date so that you receive mailings via the e-mail function.

If you do not start to receive mailings from the relevant branch, please let Lara Farey know.
