This event is sponsored by:

We are pleased to be welcomed by Oxfam GB to their Head Quarters in Oxford to hear presentations by Matt George, Oxfam Trading Division's Head of Logistics and Helen Slinger who works in the Trading Division.

Last April a devastating fire destroyed Oxfam's recycling facility, Wastesaver, based in Huddersfield. Though much was lost, Matt George will explain the positive outcomes of the incident and inform us of Oxfam's plans for the future providing an insight into the challenges of the year and the transformation of key elements of Oxfam's business operation including a move to a brand new storage and distribution facility in Milton Keynes.

Helen has just returned from a visit to the Gutu district of Zimbabwe and will explain how Oxfam is helping families adapt to changing weather patterns enabling them to grow crops on previously barren land.

The event will commence at 4:45 for a start at 5.15pm with a selection of refreshments and an opportunity to meet other guests. There will be an opportunity for further networking after the presentations.
