This event is sponsored by:

Please join us for a networking skills training session at the offices of TLT LLP. Lunch will be served from 12:30 with the training commencing at 13:00.

Course aim

The ability to network effectively is an essential skill for all those who are looking to establish more connections, raise their visibility and generate leads. Developing your networking skills will allow you to maximise opportunities in the future which in the long term will result in more business.

This lunchtime briefing is both an opportunity to network and also to explore the skills required in effective networking including tips on how to work a room and other networking tactics.

Course host

The course will be hosted by TLT LLP and the speaker is June Smallwood-Rose of Passionate About Marketing. June was a marketing director at KPMG, Wragge & Co and Shoosmiths, bringing clients a wealth of marketing experience. Prior to that she spent time as a practising accountant for ten years with KPMG and then spent five years in their HR and training team before moving into a business development role.

Bring a non-member for free

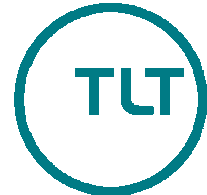

To all those members looking to attend, please bring along a colleague or contact for free.
