Women in Property®
Aspire • Succeed • Inspire

Interested in joining us? You're in the right place.

Women in Property brings together professionals from across the built environment to share ideas, build relationships, develop careers and create positive change.

Whether you're starting out, building your career, running a business or looking for new connections, there's a place for you at WiP.

What is Women in Property?

Established in 1987, Women in Property is the longest-established women's network in the built environment.

We bring together women working across property, construction and the wider built environment, and we're multi-disciplinary, UK-wide and highly connected, creating opportunities to:

- Meet fellow professionals and build lasting relationships
- Learn through events, workshops and shared expertise
- Develop your career, confidence and business network
- Share ideas, experience and opportunities
- Make a difference to the future of our industry
- Have fun along the way
- Multi-disciplinary one network, many perspectives

We also work with professional institutions, industry partners and major conferences and events to help create a more balanced, inclusive and welcoming built environment.

Membership at a glance

500+ Events every year | 13 Hubs across the UK

7 Branches | 1 National Network

For members:

Build your network
Meet professionals from across the built environment and make valuable new contacts.

Develop your career
Access WiP's member-only Mentoring, learning and development opportunities.

Share and learn
Exchange ideas and expertise with people working across different disciplines and sectors.

Get involved
Join NextGen, take part in Outreach, volunteer, speak, contribute and help shape the future of the industry.

Enjoy member benefits
Access member pricing, exclusive opportunities and Branch/Hub events across the UK.

Why should your employer get involved?

WiPmembershipdoesn't justbenefit individuals. It can bring real value to organisations too.

Connect
Your employees can build relationships with professionals across the built environment.

Develop
Our events provide opportunities for training, learning and professional development.

Build business
Networking can create new contacts, conversations, collaborations and business opportunities.

Raise your profile
Host a WiP event, partner with us, contribute an article or share your expertise with our audience.

Reach the industry
Connect with professionals at local, regional and national level.

Support social value
Make WiP part of your organisation's social value, inclusion and community activity.

More than networking

A community of professionals
Members join WiP for different reasons - what brings them together is a shared commitment to connection, collaboration and progress.

There's a real sense of camaraderie within WiP. Members support each other, make introductions, share opportunities and recommend one another for projects.

Mentoring that makes a difference

Our members-only Mentoring programme connects members with experienced professionals from outside their immediate workplace.

Whether you're working towards a promotion, considering a career move, developing your confidence or navigating a workplace challenge, mentoring can provide valuable perspective, support and practical advice.

Ready to join?

Your network is waiting.

For less than the cost of a weekly coffee, you can become part of a UK-wide network of professionals who are connecting, learning, supporting one another and helping shape the future of our industry.

What's not to like? Click to join!

Click here for information on membership types, fees and terms & conditions, or contact membership@womeninproperty.org.uk

womeninproperty.org.uk