

“Creativity at Work” - a RIBA CPD approved seminar with Herman Miller

Thursday 20th September 2018

5:30pm – 7:30pm

68 Middle Street (ground floor event space), Brighton, BN1 1AL

The women in property South Coast Committee is delighted to be joined by iconic Furniture Manufacturer Herman Miller for “Creativity at Work” - a RIBA CPD approved seminar.

Innovation resides at the core of any thriving commercial organisation, generating new ideas to enhance business performance and help organisations stay ahead.

Herman Miller has investigated how the creative mind works, finding four different ‘types’. This seminar explores the characteristics of these minds and the workplace design attributes that enhance their creative ability.

This event is participative and will be a great opportunity to get together, learn about developing creative spaces and network with others in the professional property industry.

A certificate of attendance will be issued for those who require it for their CPD records.

To Apply: Please fill out and return the attached form together with your cheque (payable to "Women in Property") to: Jane Drew, RLF, 98/99 Queens Road, Brighton BN1 3XF
