Join us for The Women in Property Mentoring programme which is a “members only” benefit and a valuable career development tool.

Mentoring can help at any stage of your career – a two-way learning partnership that is an enriching, fulfilling, beneficial experience for both mentor and mentee. Could you benefit from regular contact with someone who encourages you, understands your role and believes in your ability? Would you share your experiences, support another member and encourage her to reach her full potential?

The WiP mentoring scheme includes training to support all parties establish and develop an effective relationship, led by Sandi Rhys Jones OBE. Here are just a few comments from those taking part.

“A very interesting event that enlightened me about the potential benefits of having a mentor.”

“Gives me faith for my future as a woman in the industry.”

“Superb speaker. Sandi created an environment in which people felt comfortable to share and listen to each other.”

“Really good nuggets of value throughout the training.”
