Join us for a specialist interactive workshop on media and public speaking. All too often we see the list of speakers at Conferences and debates and there are very few women on the panel – we want to change this status quo and work to give senior Women in Property members who may not feel comfortable speaking publicly the training and confidence so to do. Susan Heaton-Wright, Impact, Communications and Speaking Expert who ran an earlier seminar on Speaking with Impact, will deliver a three hour workshop to prepare and empower women to speak on panels and at conferences. This event will attract 3 CPD points.

To Apply: Please fill out and return the attached form together with your cheque (payable to "Women in Property") to:
Pauline Roberts, Lichfields, 14 Regent's Wharf, All Saints Street,
