Exploring the dark side of personalities with business psychologist Caroline Gourlay

17 October 2019

18.00 until 20.00

VWV Offices at Narrow Quay House, Bristol BS1 4QA

Women in Property are running an event on exploring the dark side of personalities which is based on over a decade's worth of research into the 'shadow side' of personality. During the evening Caroline Gourlay, who has over 15 years' worth of experience, will be investigating those personality traits and types that make people irrational, unhelpful or risky.

Recognising such personality traits is key to tackling these challenging behaviours within your organisation, leading to more successful businesses. This seminar will be valuable for all employers, and anyone in a line manager role.

After the event there will be drinks and nibbles and a chance to discuss the shadow side!

To Apply: Please fill out and return the attached form together with your cheque (payable to "Women in Property") to:
