Join us for Lunchtime Tapas in the City of Cardiff with our inspiring guest speaker Ann-Marie Smale MBE. Director of Powell Dobson Architects based in Cardiff, with a wealth of achievements throughout her career, and an MBE for services to education and training in the construction industry Wales. Having forged strong links with the Welsh School of Architecture, and a portfolio of works to include award-winning waterfront developments Pentre Nicklaus Village and the Mariners Quay developments, which won the sustainable larger affordable housing project of the year at the UK sustainability awards, Ann-Marie is truly a pioneering innovative woman within construction. Don't miss the opportunity to ask questions at the Q & A segment, where Ann-Marie will be delighted to share her career progression within the industry. Promoting equality, this event is open to both men and women within the construction industry.
