To celebrate mentoring month and the success of our mentoring programme (which is exclusively for members) we are hosting this free tapas lunch. This event which will be attended by current mentors and mentees who will share their experiences and talk about the benefits of mentoring. Members who are interested in the process but unsure if they are sufficiently experienced are also very welcome to join the discussion. So please come and join us, so that we can further develop a mentoring programme that suits the needs of Central Scotland.

Free to members
