

COMING SOON: Central Scotland Events 2020

Site Visit – Hill House, Helensburgh Join us at the NTS restoration of the Hill House, considered to be Mackintosh’s domestic masterpiece. The NTS are embarking on a 10-year conservation programme, which will allow continued public access to the house, but also offer views of the Hill House that have never been seen before. You will be treated to a guided tour and given chance to ask questions about the Hill House Box and the National Trust for Scotland’s pioneering approach to caring for this building. Please note that there will be an opportunity to car share from both Edinburgh and Glasgow. Please get in touch for more details. Includes entry, guided tour plus tea/coffee and scone. Contact: Claire Cockburn, Smith Scott Mullan E: c.cockburn@smith-scott-mullan.co.uk	Tuesday, 17 March 2020 2pm-4pm Members: £20 Non-Members: £30 The Hill House, Upper Colquhoun Street, Helensburgh G84 9AJ
Networking Lunch with a Twist, Edinburgh Our first ‘Networking Lunch with a Twist’ event of 2020 takes place in award-winning chef Mark Greenaway’s ‘Grazing’ restaurant at the luxurious Waldorf Astoria (‘The Caley’) in Edinburgh. Join us for an afternoon of meeting new faces over a sumptuous 3-course lunch. We look forward to welcoming you then! Contact: Laura Banks, Gleeds E: laura.banks@gleeds.co.uk	Thursday, 26 March 2020 12.30pm-2.30pm Members: £35 Non-Members: £45 ‘Grazing’ by Mark Greenaway, Waldorf Astoria – The Caledonian, Edinburgh
Further details of events which are planned for the year ahead will be published shortly.
If you have a suggestion for an event, or can provide a venue, or subject, please get in touch with our Chairman, Rachel Dunn via email: Rachel.Dunn@dentons.com

 @WiPCentScot

 Women in Property Central Scotland

www.womeninproperty.org.uk