Join the Women in Property South Wales branch for our AGM, and get some inspiration from our guest speaker, local property developer and mentor, and current National Women in Property Chair, Mandy St John Davey.

For those who are not members, this event will provide you with an insight into the many activities of the branch, as well as offer an opportunity to meet the incoming Committee for 2020.

We are delighted that Mandy will be joining us to deliver our first Annual Make Your Mark Lecture, talking about her career, achieving success and reflecting on her last year as National Chair of Women in Property.

There will be an opportunity to quiz Mandy during a Q&A session, as well as plenty of time for drinks, canapes and networking with the Committee and other members and guests.
