Join us at the next of our Leading Women series of networking lunches to hear from Katharine Hardie about her career journey to become Chair of Scotland and Northern Ireland at international law firm, Pinsent Masons LLP.

Katharine, who specialises in commercial and residential property development, is responsible for leading the firm's four offices across Aberdeen, Glasgow, Edinburgh and Belfast and was the first female to be appointed to the role.

Katharine, who hails from Aberdeen, will tell us more about her career path, the challenges faced as a woman ascending the ranks in the property industry and will share her advice on career progression.

To Apply: Please fill out and return the attached form together with your cheque (payable to "Women in Property") to:

Carol Nisbet, CMS, 6 Queens Road, Aberdeen, AB15 4ZT
Please email event organiser for BACS details; no refunds for cancellations
