How to be financially savvy

Thursday 26th March
6pm – 8.30pm
AHR Vintry Building, Wine Street, Bristol, BS1 2BD

Let's talk about money!

According to a recent survey, women invest 35-40% less money than men. Not only is there a gender pay gap, but a gender savings gap, resulting in women having smaller pension pots and less money saved, up to 40% less than men by the time we retire.

Sarah Fox-Clinch of Fox Davidson and Rod Albricht of Octagon Consultancy will look at how you can take control of your finances and how you can invest your money. They will explore options of property investment as well as other ethical and sustainable opportunities.

To Apply: Please fill out and return the attached form together with your cheque (payable to "Women in Property") to:
