Women in Property

It might be the start of a new year, but most of us probably feel as if the old one is still with us, with all its worry and uncertainty. At Women in Property we know how valuable the support of a mentor can be at such times, so we have gone virtual with our national mentoring programme to overcome the challenges of social distancing and have added a new activity – the Mentoring Club.

Piloted in December, the Mentoring Club is designed for mentors and mentees, both experienced and those waiting to embark on a relationship, to share experience, discuss key topics and hear some practical, transferable tips.

At times like these, talking with others who understand your world, but are outside your work and home environment, can be just the support needed to manage challenges and make constructive decisions. The Mentoring Club provides that critical friend environment, providing a complementary service to the mentoring programme. Led by Sandi Rhys Jones OBE.

Comments from those taking part.

"what a great session"

"It's been really useful to hear everyone's comments "
