Given the uncertainties of last year and the continuing challenges we face in the workplace, we at Women in Property know how valuable the support of a mentor can be at such times, so we have gone virtual with our national mentoring programme to overcome the challenges of social distancing and adding a new activity - the Mentoring Club.

Piloted over the past year, the Mentoring Club is designed for mentors and mentees, both experienced and those waiting to embark on a relationship, to share experience, discuss key topics and hear some practical, transferable tips.

At times like these, talking with others who understand your world, but are outside your work and home environment, can be just the support needed to manage challenges and make constructive decisions. The Mentoring Club provides that critical friend environment, a complementary service to the mentoring programme, led by Sandi Rhys Jones OBE.

Comments from those taking part.

"What a great session."

" Really useful to hear everyone's comments. "

"Inspiring, informative and a great opportunity to share experiences and learn from others."

"A genuinely supportive and caring forum, which elicited ideas and contributed to boosting the confidence that I had in my participation in the programme."
