In these uncertain times the support of a mentor is particularly important, which is why Women in Property quickly rose to the challenge by adapting its mentoring programme for online delivery and then added a complementary service – the Mentoring Club.

Designed for mentors and mentees, the Mentoring Club is a forum for the experienced and those waiting to embark on a mentoring relationship, to share experience, discuss key topics and hear some practical, transferable tips.

At times like these, talking with others who understand your world, but are outside your work and home environment, can be just the support needed to manage challenges and make constructive decisions. The Mentoring Club, led by Sandi Rhys Jones OBE, provides that critical friend environment.

Comments from those taking part.

“Sandi’s chairing/moderation of the session is very gentle but authoritative. It feels like a safe place to be open and honest.”

“A genuinely supportive and caring forum, which elicited ideas and contributed to boosting the confidence that I had in my participation in the programme.”

“Would like to join another session, perhaps to learn more about how mentors deal with virtual v face to face, for example.”

“What a great session.”

“Inspiring, informative and a great opportunity to share experiences and learn from others.”
