After the excesses of the festive period, join your fellow property professionals for a detox-friendly networking lunch. The meal will be meat-free, with the revelry of the Christmas period behind us, this get together will be no less delicious or merry.

Church is housed in the listed Osborn Works in Sheffield's Kelham Island and is the only industrial building designed by famed Victorian architect William John Hale. Church has a 100% vegan bar and street food kitchen to satisfy the taste buds of vegans and omnivores alike.

All genders welcome.
