After the excesses of the festive period, join your fellow property professionals for a detox-friendly networking lunch. The meal will be meat-free, with the revelry of the Christmas period behind us, this get together will be no less delicious or merry.

Not just another food-place or just another bar, Meat is Dead is an entirely plant-based venue which is all of the above but so much more to boot. It was established in 2021 with the aim of bringing people together to enjoy each other with great-tasting, fresh food.

All genders welcome.
