Bespoke training, created exclusively for the Women in Property network and designed specifically for women, delivered by Kath Foot, an engaging and award-winning trainer.

The event will provide an introduction to networking for those new to it, alongside supporting those experienced in networking to refine and improve their skills. Delivered in person at Cardiff & Vale College, this session will be interactive, engaging and inspiring, providing a learning experience that attendees will remember and will aid their professional development.

One three hour session focusing on key areas outlined below:

- Why network
- Identify barriers that hold us back
- How to win friends and influence people
- The importance of effective communication
- Developing a memorable ‘pitch’
- What to do before, during and after an event

Learners can expect important takeaways and some interactive content to encourage discussion and reflection.

* Coffees/Teas & selection of cakes will be provided

Kathryn Foot – Coach and Trainer

“Kath is an inspirational trainer and I can't recommend her enough, she is highly motivating and amazing at getting people to recognise their value” Katie Phillips, Coastal Housing

Many thanks to Cardiff & Vale College for supporting this event and providing the venue
