We invite members and non-members to join us for the first Women in Property event in Chesterfield.

This professional networking event is being held in the heart of Chesterfield town centre. Women in Property aims to create opportunities, expand knowledge and inspire change for people working in the property and construction industry and we are excited to bring the network to the Chesterfield area.

Attendees will enjoy a glass of fizz upon arrival, followed by a selection of nibbles and token for a second glass of fizz. Non-alcoholic options will be available. The bar will be open for attendees to purchase any additional drinks. Please advise of any dietary requirements when booking onto the event.

This event is kindly sponsored by Turner & Townsend who will be in attendance at the event.

All genders are welcome.
