Her current role focusses on the development of Homes England's national place-based delivery approach. She is also a qualified career coach and provides ongoing career coaching support.	Wednesday 25th September

Tour of Park Hill – Streets in the Sky!, Sheffield

Women in Property Yorkshire and NE branch are excited to invite you to walk the iconic ‘Streets in the Sky’ and experience a tour of this visible landmark overlooking Sheffield.

The building is of international importance and was awarded Grade II* Listing in 1998. The regeneration of Park Hill has been well documented and has been shortlisted twice for the Stirling prize for architecture.

This unique tour will be led by the hugely enthusiastic and knowledgeable Park Hill Residents’ Association and will last for 90 minutes. We will meet at 4:15pm with the tour commencing at 4:30pm.

Note: For those interested in staying around after the tour for drinks and nibbles, a separate WIP event is being hosted at The Pearl at Park Hill from 6pm. You will need to book onto this separately.

Baby Loss Awareness Week – Employee Support for Miscarriage and Baby Loss with The Worst Girl Gang Ever, Virtual

Join Women in Property Yorkshire & North East as we mark the start of Baby Loss Awareness Week 2024.

Founded by Bex Gunn and Laura Buckingham, best selling authors and award winning podcast hosts, TWGGE offers courses, support groups and a thriving community to support through the storm of baby loss and onwards.

TWGGE also works with organisations to develop a people first approach to supporting their employees through loss, through both policies and guidance, and also creating a safe space to open the conversation about baby loss in the workplace which raise awareness by opening the dialogue around baby loss in the workplace.

25% of employees trying to have a child will be directly affected by baby loss or miscarriage and 69% of those affected by loss have said their employer did know how to support them. We want to empower you to effectively and authentically support your team through baby loss.

We'll be discussing how you can support members of your team affected by baby loss including how to manage comms and return to work plans, and helping your team member feel fully validated, empowered and supported through their experience.
