

National Student Awards

Are you a female, second year student studying a Built Environment degree course?

If so, you are eligible to enter the Women in Property National Student Awards.

- ◆ Develop interview techniques and presentation skills
- ◆ Meet leaders in property and construction
- ◆ Help with securing a work placement
- ◆ Internship opportunities with sponsors
- ◆ Cash prizes and the accolade of competing at a high level
- ◆ A year's WiP membership to help expand your professional network
- ◆ The opportunity to compete in the National Final event in London

If you are interested in participating, ask your course leader to get involved. All nominees take part in a regional judging panel and regional awards events, and have the potential to compete in the national final held in London including a spectacular celebration dinner.

For information visit Women in Property's website and search for 'National Student Awards' or contact Alice Pye – awards@womeninproperty.org.uk