

CPD Accredited: Neurodiversity in the Workplace Awareness Training

22nd July 2025

Speaker: Karon Goodman, Complete Training

Carrie has over twenty-seven years within senior leadership and quality roles moving into consultancy and freelance roles where she excels in facilitating engaging and interactive sessions.

Carrie is qualified in many areas including teaching, psychology and management.

Carrie is highly experienced within the training and professional development sector.

Working in FE in a senior position and then moving into the private sector as a consultant, Carrie has supported many people to aspire, achieve and flourish.

Carrie specialises within subject areas within Health and Social Care such as Mental Health, Neurodiversity, Behaviours and communication and supports key professionals through coaching and mentoring work.

Carrie has been described as nurturing, approachable, professional and an excellent tutor and facilitator making learning enjoyable, relatable and informative.

Carrie adds her own experiences and examples to bring subjects to life and is always keen to answer questions people have on the subjects she delivers.